TIGARD UNION
HIGH SCHOOL
TIGARD, OREGON

FOREWORD

Time travels in divers paces with divers persons.
—Shakespeare.

Time has no beginning, no ending
Time speeds on, so sending
Some mortal to earth, for lending
His life to service rendering.

Time brings sorrow, again joy,
Time means life to a girl or boy,
Some moments golden, others alloy,
Idleness and waste, all annoy.

Time is the theme of this memory book,
Time is recording, if you will look
On the pages, many happenings it took
To tell our story in the 1937 book.

DEDICATION

A decade of time has passed since the establishment of the Tigard Union High School in the year of 1927.

Time has brought changes to the personnel of the Student Body and the executive staff. Many of the graduates of the institution have become established in their life's work.

In general, we desire to dedicate the 1937 year book to all members of the Student Body and to all faculty members during the past decade.

In particular, we desire to dedicate the 1937 year book to Superintendent Fowler, Mrs. Elwert and Mrs. Mullen whose period of service has extended through the entire decade.

Little "Tinny" sez:—

"Teachers and pupils make up our schools.
They wrestle with us, as well as problems and rules."

ADMINISTRATION and CLASSES

G. Leslie, M. Koopmans, F. Elsner, E. Hunziker, H. Leedy, H. Stewart.

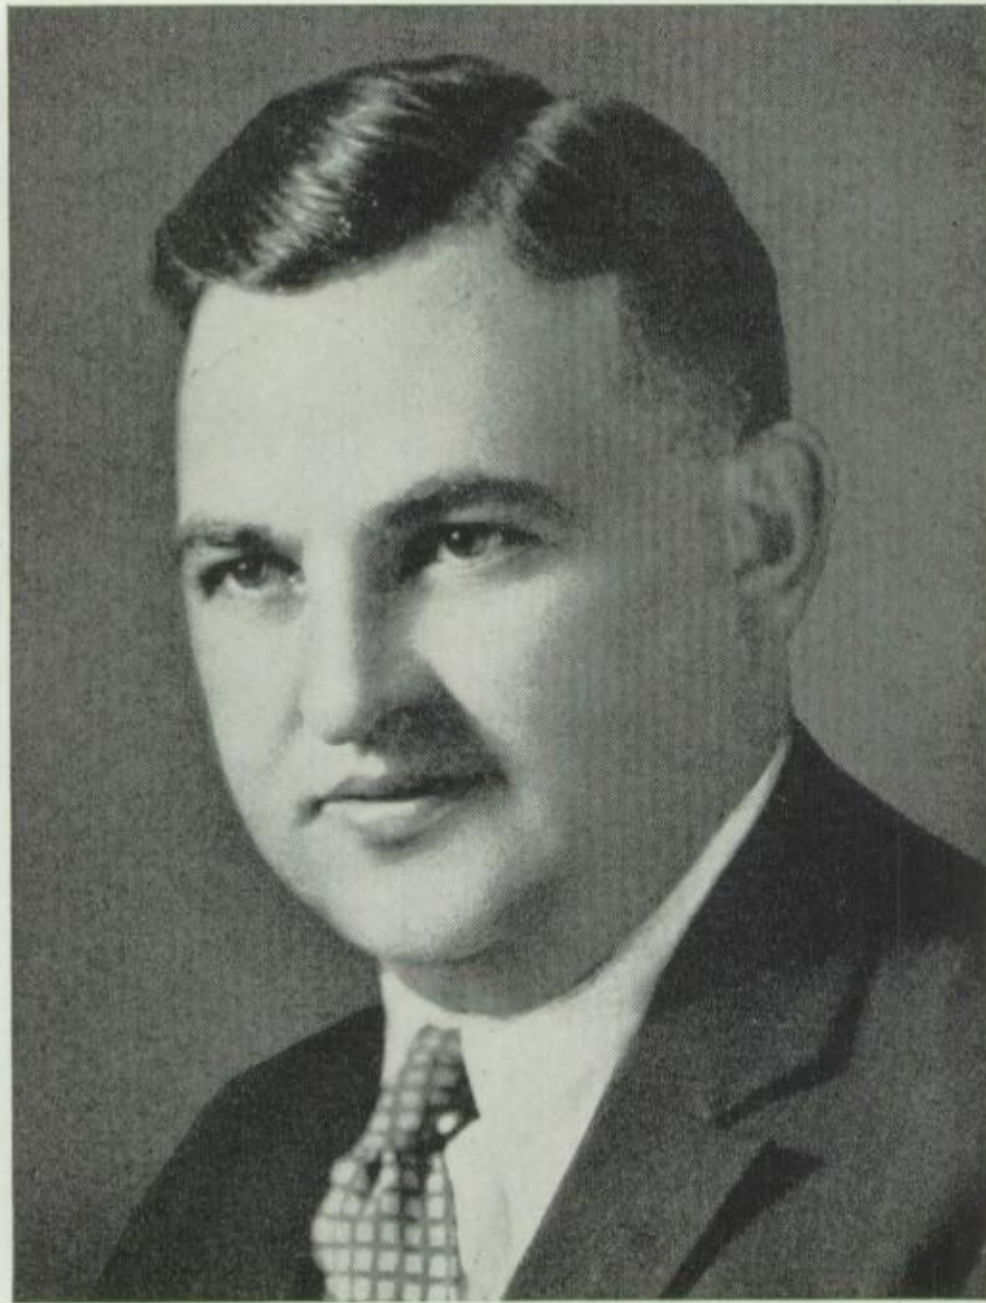

BOARD OF EDUCATION

What impels men towards achievement—not always money—not always fame—but a desire to cause civilization to progress.

Start with the "Thing" and work your way back to the minds that conceived it and you will understand the appreciation that we have for the sincere efforts of our school board.

In general, we desire to dedicate this page to all members who have served on the school board during the past decade.

In particular, to Mr. Elsner and Mr. Leedy who have given a decade of service to the development of Tigard Union High School.

SUPERINTENDENT FOWLER

Time is the precious coinage of your life and you must learn to spend it wisely. You must have ideals, and ideals must constantly be resolved into essential and practical things. It is impossible to unscramble life. Hence, with life before you, be reasonably sure of the use of it, before you decide the direction you are going.

My wish for you is that in old age you will be able to look back upon a life of industry, and to find in its record nothing to regret; to possess a mind keenly alive to the world of books, to possess a quick and abounding sympathy for one's fellow men; and to be at peace in regard to the future into which we pass. These are factors found in the fruits of success which are worthy of your gathering.

Sincerely,

Thos. R. Fowler.

Front Row: Mrs. Summers, Mrs. Elwert, Miss Payne, Miss Eickmeyer, Miss Nash, Miss Weaver.
Back Row: Miss Johnson, Mr. Fowler, Mr. Smith, Mr. Hare, Mr. Linn, Mrs. Mullen.

TIME MARCHES ON

(Class History)

1934 Marches On Theme Song: "Wearin' O' the Green"

Freshmen: "We met with Mr. Fowler,
And he took us by the hand.
And he said,"
Fowler: "How is the Freshman class
And how does she stand?"
Freshmen: "'Tis' the most distressful class, sir
That ever you have seen.
They're making all the boys and girls
The wearers of the green."

1935 Marches On Theme Song: "Where Do We Go From Here Boys?"

Fowler: "Where do you go from here boys?
Where do you go from here?"
Sophomores: "From the beginning of our sophomore
To the end of our Senior year."
Fowler: "You'd better look unto the Seniors
For a helping hand."
Sophomores: "Yes, and when we're Seniors
We'll remember the underclassman."

1936 Marches On Theme Song: "Follow Me, Full of Glee"

Juniors: "Birds are free, so are we,
And we live as happily."
Fowler: "Footsteps light, faces bright,
'Tis a happy, happy sight."
Juniors: "We shall laugh and dance and sing,
Gay as birds or anything."
Fowler: "You must work and study, too,
Learning daily something new."
Juniors: "Follow me, full of glee,
Merrily, merrily, merrily."

1937 Marches On Theme Song: "Bid Me Good-bye."

Seniors: "It's not that we
Do not love you, no."
Fowler: "But you must bid me
Good-bye, and go."
Seniors: "Good-bye, Good-bye,
'Tis better so."
Fowler: "Bid me good-bye,
Good-bye and go."
Seniors: "We feel that our work
Was not in vain."
Fowler: "I hope it was joy
Instead of pain."
Seniors: "Now we shall either
Rise or fall."
Fowler: "I wish you success,
And happiness, all."

DESTINY IN A TEACUP

(Prophecy)

You needn't go to a palmist
To have your fortune told.
Tea leaves tell the secrets
That the future for you holds.

First put the kettle on to boil.
"Caldron, Caldron, trouble and toil."
Then large tea leaves, you should drop
Into the water steaming hot.

Seniors, we shall now behold
Just how your tea leaves lay,
And as to your destiny,
This is what they say:

Appleberry.....	Presages the discovery of a mystery.
Allen.....	The recognition of labor and flattery.
Ball.....	A powerful friend and a fine opportunity.
Ball, H. E.....	A long journey and a dire calamity.
Becker.....	Obstacles in the path or unfavorable omens.
Branch.....	Soon to be ensnared by a lovely women.
Clark.....	Intense love of life and strong fellow feeling.
Collins, E.....	A large inheritance and money to lend.
Collins, J.....	Ill luck or the death of a distant friend.
Conklin.....	Prosperity ahead and good business dealings.
Dobson.....	This is a sign of future good tidings.
Gango.....	Someone looks at you with love and longing.
Harris.....	Beware of an unsuspected enemy.
Hasuike.....	A serious accident or a robbery.
Hedrick.....	The symbol of riches; indicates wealth.
Houle, I.....	A sign of beauty and rugged health.
Houle, V.....	A certain augury of success.
Jaquess.....	Insures domestic happiness.
Kellner.....	A virtuous life with no immorality.
Koopmans.....	Many friends and a strong personality.
Mackenzie.....	Denotes great chagrin of short duration.
Mallett.....	A sign of successful speculations.
Meyer, A.....	An absolute indication of happy married life.
Meyer, C.....	Foretells personal injury and denotes strife.
Miner.....	Predicts pecuniary and family trouble.
Nedry.....	Receive money by marriage which shall double.
Nyberg.....	An omen of phenomenal luck and attained ambition.
Olson.....	Forecasts interest by friends and suspicion.
O'Neil.....	Presages disappointment and early death.
Owrey.....	Signifies a friendly disposition—gentleness.
Patterson.....	A great deal from life you will demand.
Peterson.....	Predicts an exciting visit from a dark woman.
Ream.....	Foretells ill luck for one year.
Rhodes.....	A sign of loving without fear.
Sagers.....	The future will be bright and prosperous.
Selliken.....	Forewarns misadventure and an evil consequence.
Schiewe.....	Your life shall be adventurous and full of fun.
Shirke.....	Each day's work shall be well done.
Stromquist.....	Signifies silver; a favorable omen.
Thomas.....	Indicates the appearance of dark young men.
Talent.....	Forecasts a life of comfort and ease.
Upshaw.....	The leaves are gone, the fortune leaves.

THE TREASURE CHEST

(Class Will of 1937)

Father Time has issued the edict that the class of 1937 disband, go out into the world and find a place in life that will mean happiness and satisfaction. The class being of sound mind and in benevolent mood, has unanimously agreed to bequeath many of its prized possessions to the following persons or organizations:

'Twas a momentous month in Tigard, on September Thirty-three,
For 'twas then this class of brain and brawn you first did chance to see,
We were starry-eyed with wonder, as we trod these halls of fame,
And our hearts beat fast with high resolve to carve for us a name.
Now comes the time of parting, and as we glance around
To gather up the things we've gained, a few just can't be found.
There's many a long lost argument, debate, and motion too,
If you should find these, I don't know what in this world you'd do.
But if the spirit of argument upon you chanced to fall,
Just take this to Mrs. Mullen, when you come back next fall.
The singers lost a chord, one day, in Nash's singing class,
And Coach 'most died when someone lost that favorite lateral pass.
These things out of necessity we leave for you to find,
And if successful, we sure hope you'll treat each one most kind.
Then to the juniors, as a class, these things we'd leave to you:
The spirit that goes fighting on, the will to say "I do."
Next year you're seniors, so we give to help you on your way,
Courage, sportsmanship, courtesy and love, you'll need them all each day.
The sophomores are coming up, they're juniors here next year.
To them we leave our modesty. They'll need it, never fear.
The freshmen now are sophomores. My! How the infants grow.
We'd leave them honor and honesty as worthwhile seeds to sow.
And to the class that's coming in, the freshmen now to be,
We give high hopes and courage as you start on Knowledge Sea.
And furthermore, we leave to you, our schoolmates, teachers, all,
Our wishes true that all through life in things both great and small
You'll meet them with high courage and a hope that's big and strong.
But if sometime in spite of all some little thing goes wrong
We'd leave you faith to fill your heart and ever there abide;
For you know 'tis said that faith alone can move a mountain side.
Then youth's gay spirit we would leave to cheer you on your way,
'Twill help you find new happiness and joyousness each day.
Contentment is a jewel rare, so we would leave you one.
May you find peace and hearts' desire when each day's work is done.
Purity of thought and strength of mind to choose the things worth while
And guide you through life's crooked paths of treachery and guile.
Intelligence is another thing you should not be without,
So cultivate this creature rare and think before you shout.
A friendless life, a prison is. So we'd leave friends to you.
Just be a friend and you'll have friends right now and all life through.
We'd leave you old traditions that were handed down to us
Be a gentleman in winning and in losing do not fuss.
Just remember, 'tis not the winning or the losing of the game
But our courage, fight, and honesty that brings our school its fame.
Many other things we could leave you to help home, school, or state,
But the lawyer now is crying, "Bring that will here to probate!"

Signed and Sealed by the Senior Class of 1937.

LIFE'S ROAD

Life is a long, long road.
It was smooth and shining before,
But now
I can see ugly ruts in it.
I will not stumble—I will pass the ruts.
Even though my cart may stall
I will go on—on—
Life is a long, long road.
The road is flecked with sunshine
And shadow.
Birds trill happily on the green boughs
In the sun.
Ugly parasites feed on the dead wood
In the shadow.
True—I cannot avoid the shadow,
But after each shadow I will find
Myself again in the joyous
Sunshine,
And the sunshine will be more
Beautiful
For the shadow gone before.
—Life is a long, long road.
It stretches before me,
But some day
I will have pulled my cartwheels free of ruts,
And I will be standing in the mellow sunlight
I will see behind me the ruts,
No longer ugly,
But beautiful for the lessons they have taught me.
And I will see the shadows,
Not gruesome,
But mellow with the pain they hold.
I will look back over the Long,
Happy road
And be Content.

TENTH SENIOR EDITION OF THE HI-SPOTS

Vol. X

TIGARD HIGH SCHOOL, MAY ??, 1937

CLASS OF '37 OVERCOMES CAP AND GOWN BOGEY

COMMENCEMENT

The last week in May is Commencement week for the Class of '37. Commencement will remain in our memories long after school days are past. The Class of '37 will be the first to be graduated from our beautiful new auditorium.

The seniors will look back upon this week as one of the high lights of their school life. In Caps and Gowns, 40 seniors will participate in the closing exercises of their school life.

Baccalaureate will be held on the 23rd of May and then on the following Friday, May 28, commencement, the closing exercise of our school life will be held and the seniors will leave school life for life's school.

Always the seniors will remember their years at Tigard. Especially will their senior year remain in their memories.

SENIOR MOTTO

"Preparing Today; Achieving Tomorrow," expresses the pattern of our life highway, each curve becoming more complicated. In grade school our preparation for high school was the first goal post on our highway. Many dropped by on a side road, but still our preparation continued. High school training made our chances bigger and better in the more numerous fields of life such as science, commercial, history, government, and the appreciation of the finer curves of life.

"Achieving tomorrow" largely depends upon the thoroughness of our preparation and of the determination to make the next goal.

Each senior has had equal opportunities in high school. Now the test of achieving begins.

SENIORS WIN

TICKET SALE

For the third consecutive year the senior class has won the banner for the class having the largest percentage of student body ticket sales. The percentage of the seniors who purchased tickets was comparable to the number of purchases made by last year's senior class.

A vast majority of the students in school enrolled as members of the associated Student Body to set that body off to a flying start for the school year. Competition was keen for the banner as one might well expect.

As a result of these sales, it was again possible to publish the school paper.

MAY DAY PAGEANT

Tigard Union High School held their annual May Day exercises on May 14. The theme of this year's pageant being "The Seasons" which was interpreted by song and dance by all the affiliated schools.

The grade school of Tigard interpreted the season of Spring, Bend; the season of Summer, Durham; the season of Autumn and Metzger, interpreted the season of Winter.

The High School gave the May Pole Dance and interpretation of the holidays.

Miss Peggy O'Neil was Queen of May Day with the following attendants: Prime Minister, Max Miner; Senior Attendants, Elaine Olson, Wilbur Nyberg; Junior, Charlene Gaddis, Ervin Ashmore; Sophomore, Vera Steele, Paul Rasmussen; Freshmen, Virginia Gaddis, and Arnie Ingalls.

The Court of the Seasons was interpreted by Betty Selliken, Jeannette Mallet, Eileen Collins, Edna Stromquist and Edith Appleberry.

CAPS AND GOWNS

INAUGURATED

By a sizable majority, we, the senior class of nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, saw fit to introduce on this the tenth anniversary in the curriculum of Tigard Union High School, the wearing of caps and gowns.

We deemed it appropriate on such an auspicious occasion as the tenth annual graduation ceremony of our beloved high school that we do something significant by which the passing of ten years in the life of this institution of higher learning be marked in years to come.

Yes, marked as the tenth class to emerge from this institution with a broader knowledge and better understanding of the things that are expected of us from the society in which we are to live.

Indeed, the road has been long and a bit narrow in places. In fact, of the ninety-seven classmates who enrolled in the freshman class of this high school in 1933, less than one-half that number are graduating together in the class of '37. Yet we are confident that it has been a worthwhile trip and that ultimately we will profit by our efforts and the efforts of our parents, teachers, and friends.

APPRECIATION

TO TEACHERS

When we pause to consider the time, consideration, patience, and work our teachers have bestowed upon us, words fail us in giving them due recognition of their worth. They have earned our eternal gratitude, and grateful acknowledgement is due them for their efforts in our behalf. The faculty may be sure that our appreciation for them will increase through the years and that they will be forever enshrined in the hearts of the members of the class of 1937.

RALLY NIGHT

The fact that the rally stunts were a big success was proved by the enthusiastic laughter and applause of the friends and students gathered.

Immediately after the program, everyone went to the blazing fire. Thus a great deal of "pep" was displayed by the crowd which serpentine around the fire and took part in many yells led by the cheer leaders.

After a short conference the judges awarded the pep banner for 1937 to the junior class with the seniors running a very close second.

The rally took place on the night before the game with Hillsboro which took place on Armistice Day.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL GAME

The mighty senior class of 1937 captured the interclass basketball trophy, sponsored by the student body of Tigard High school.

The seniors dropped the juniors for the top notch after they had defeated the freshmen on Wednesday. The final game was very close with both teams fighting hard for the honors.

The sophomores and freshmen were eliminated in the first games. The juniors defeated the sophomores and the seniors beat the freshmen. Although these two teams were eliminated they showed some very excellent material which will be of value to the school.

A charge of five cents at the third and final game gave the student body the necessary funds for engraving the interclass basketball trophy.

ANNUAL SALES

This year, the senior class was faced with the same problem as every other senior class in the history of Higard Hi School has been faced with: that of editing the school annual. A quota of two-hundred annual sales was set as a minimum and this was obtained by Christmas. An auction was held in an assembly at which many annuals were sold.

The sophomores showed splendid school spirit by purchasing more annuals than any other class in the school. For this they were rewarded by a show and candy feed at which the rest of the classes attended by a paid admission.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

As every year at this time a Christmas program was presented at the final assembly held in the new auditorium before the school was dismissed for the Christmas holidays extending through the new year.

"The Christmas Carol," by Charles Dickens, was presented by the Dramatics class under the direction of Miss Frances Nash. The chorus sang a number of Christmas carols and Helen Gango sang a solo "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Letters and numerals were then awarded the football boys by Mr. Smith. As a conclusion Mrs. Elwert presented awards to the typing and shorthand students.

FRESHMAN RECEPTION

Amid the smack of paddles, "War paint," and what have you, the freshman class of 1937 made its debut to T.U.H.S. But it wasn't as bad as it might have been and it was climaxed by the annual freshman reception, Friday, September 18.

The reception program consisted of a marimba solo by Alene Hall, a skit entitled "Dr. Jekyll and Frankenstein" put on by Stuart Rhodes, Bud Selliken and Dewey Talent, and a vocal solo by Mary Jane Miles. The climax of the afternoon was the big ice cream feed, with the freshmen as guests of honor.

THE GIRLS' LEAGUE

Every year, the main project of the Girls' Club is to sponsor a bazaar. This year's bazaar was a gratifying success to the girls. The proceeds were sufficient to equip the League room with necessary supplies, obtain their page in the Annual, and have a lovely party for their mothers.

The girls meet once each month. After the business meeting, a program is given by the different classes, starting with the freshmen and a prize is given for the most entertaining one.

The Girls' League is one of the outstanding organizations of school and the benefits are many.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME

The senior class play, "Once In a Lifetime" or "Blood Will Tell," under the supervision of Mrs. Mullen was presented May 7 and deemed a grand success by all. The play was a romantic comedy in three acts and an epilogue. It took its name from an enchanted gypsy village which was said to appear once a century with a gypsy tribe inhabiting it for a day and then disappearing.

The plot centered about a gypsy youth who had been adopted by a white family and had attained a small fortune through a gift from his foster-parents. The people of his race entered upon the scene and tried to obtain his money only to be foiled by the village halfwit. The play had numerous highly-dramatic scenes coupled with music and light comedy.

The cast of "Once In a Lifetime" included: Jeff Ross, inn-keeper, Gordon Moore; Emily Ross, his wife, Edith Appleberry; Konrod, their adopted son, Kenneth Owrey; Laurie York, their niece, Betty Selliken; Dinsmore, an author, Dewey Talent; Rodney, village half-wit, Stuart Rhodes; The Daro, Max Miner; The Daya, Irene Becker; their daughters, Katinka, Carmena, Zara, June Collins, Helen Gango, and Dorothy Ream; and Stan, Cecil Branch.

THE SENIOR HARVEST DANCE

The Senior Harvest dance held November 6 in the new high school auditorium was a grand success both socially and financially. The success accorded the seniors was only fitting for the first school dance of the year. Decorations carried out the theme of harvest. The entire gym was lined with shocks of corn stalks interspersed with the brightly colored leaves of autumn, and the typical gatherings of the harvest of pumpkins and squashes. A pair of large lighted Jack-o-lanterns were placed on either side of the stage and a typical harvest moon found its way into the scene. The lighting scheme was exemplified by strings of soft colored lights. The decorations were the basis of much favorable comment and furnished an excellent setting for a truly fine dance.

OPERETTA

The operetta "Tune In," sponsored by the Glee Club as their annual contribution to the school activities, was presented Friday evening, April 2, 1937.

The cast of principals included Kasper Kroggins, portrayed by Paul Johnson who is head of a large codfish industry whose contract is vitally essential to Joe's radio station; Mrs. Kroggins, Dorothy Ream, who is under the impression that she has a marvelous voice; Jean Kroggins who carries on the romance with Joe Brown, who is the owner of Station WTNT, played by Howard Hedrick, Jerry Kennedy, who is Kroggins' advertising manager, by Carl Berlin; Mitzie, who turns out to be the star singer for the radio program, capably taken by Helen Gango. The rest of the cast includes Tillie, Millie, Billie (girls' trio) taken by Shirley Conklin, Marilyn Stuart, and Eleanor Woodard, respectively; Dynamo Dave represented by Howard McCarl; Bob played by Dewey Talent; J. Bottomby Binks, Stuart Rhodes; Throckmorton, Bill Lawrence; and Lysander Phipps, Walter Wood.

QUEEN'S BALL

This year for the first time, the student body of Tigard Union High school is promoting a dance to be held on the night of May Day. In previous years a senior play has been held on this night.

The dance is a formal affair and is to be attended by her gracious majesty, Queen Peggy I. The admission price is twenty-five cents for student body ticket holders and thirty-five cents each for those without.

SENIORS TAKE TRIP

The morning and afternoon civics classes, comprising a group of about sixty students, mostly seniors, enjoyed a trip to the state legislature in Salem. Although unable to visit any of the other state institutions such as the penitentiary, blind school, school for feeble-minded, and insane asylum the group enjoyed visiting both the senate and house of representatives. The senate was meeting temporarily in the Marion Hotel, and the house of representatives was meeting in another building, until the new capital building is completed.

CARNIVAL

Every one who attended the annual Carnival which was held on November 25, had a gala evening. The auditorium and booths were attractively decorated in accordance with the theme, Thanksgiving. The decorations were ably planned and carried out by the members of the art class.

The evening commenced with a program consisting of a play "Pot Boilers," given by the Dramatics class, and several Spanish musical numbers, presented by the combined Glee clubs. Among the turkeys and the pumpkins which decorated the walls and booths, and in spite of the showers of confetti and the music of a variety of noise makers, the booths which included the wheel, ring games, nigger baby, punch-board, all of which, by the way, offered prizes, and the refreshments, played a large part in the gaiety and fun of the evening of this year's carnival. However, that was not all of the entertainment! The orchestra furnished the music for those who wished to dance.

THE LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The lettermen's club is an organization of Vars-T winners in major sports. Its duties are to patrol school, keep grounds clean, and to promote better sportsmanship among the students.

The lettermen's club sponsors an annual smoker which is always a success and also this year they promoted a grade school basketball tournament between Tigard, Beaverton, St. Marys, and Aloha-Huber for school publicity as well as the financial end. This was successful financially as well as publically, and received favorable comment on the way it was handled.

SPORTS

The athletic season was opened by the 1936 football team with three wins, five losses, and three ties. The team showed its power in the fact that it only received two decisive defeats, the other three being only by the margin of a conversion, 7-6. The second team was undefeated and the underclassmen proved themselves to be mighty fine prospects for next fall.

Soon after football came a highly successful basketball season. With five returning basketball lettermen, the team proceeded "to go places," winning a co-championship in Washington county, taking second place in the newly formed Washington-Columbia county league, and, in addition, taking championship honors in the first annual Albany College Invitational tournament. The team advanced to the semi-finals in the district tournament only to be turned back by McMinnville. In a total of thirty games played during the season, the team garnered twenty-five victories against five defeats.

The baseball team of last year was also a championship team, meeting with only one county defeat. The superb pitching and the powerful hitting of the Tigers feature the year's play. The track team also made a fine showing in competition with much larger teams. The golf team also contributed its share to a most successful season.

MAIL ORDER BRIDES

The Advanced Public Speaking Club of Tigard high school on Friday evening, December 11, at 8 o'clock, presented "Mail Order Brides." The play, under the direction of Mrs. Mullen, was full of twists and turns that kept the audience guessing and laughing.

The members of the cast are as follows: "Pinkey" Butler and "Skeet" Snyder, ranch hands, Bob Allen and Max Miner; Nance Hershaw, Betty Selliken; Nick Henshaw, owner of the Ruby Heart Ranch, Bert Sagers; Bob Henshaw, his son, Kenneth Owrey; Princess, the Indian servant, Margaret Shierk; Rose Crandall, the maid, Helen Ball; Jane Hamilton and Deering Hamilton, visitors from Chicago, Jeanette Mallett and Howard Hedrick; Queenie Dugan, Orabella Jennings, and Gayrell Jones also of Chicago, Dewey

SENIOR BREAKFAST

Along in April the sun begins to send down its rays more perpendicularly and the senior class begins to enumerate the functions before the close of the school year. The first function to be speculated about is the senior breakfast sponsored by the faculty. Rumors of the past have floated down to our receptive ears and here are a few of the sub rosa questions. Will the faculty sponsor a breakfast this year? What will they serve, ham, liver or toast and coffee? Who does the cooking, Mrs. Summers, Mr. Linn or Coach Smith? Do the seniors have to wash dishes? Do they initiate the seniors? In fact there are lots of questions bothering this class, but the principal one is "Will There Be A Senior Breakfast"?

B.P.S. VS. A.P.S.

The first interclass basketball game of the season was played between the Advanced and Beginning Public Speaking classes for the purpose of using the proceeds for some organization not able to pay for their page in the annual.

The audience rose in a frenzy during the last seconds of the game when a toss of the ball by Cletus Kirsh, gave the game to the Beginners by a score of 11 to 10.

Completing its third successful high school year, the Junior class of sixty-eight members will always be remembered for its pep and school spirit. This class was ever alert and whole-heartedly behind every activity sponsored in the school. This spirit is shown in the fact that this class won the pep banner at the annual pep rally.

The most successful Junior Prom ever to be held in this school was sponsored this year by the junior class.

Believing themselves capable of reaching even greater heights, this junior class is eagerly looking to next year when they will be seniors.

The Sophomore class of 1937 completed its second successful year in high school with sixty-four members. Characteristic of this class also was its spirit of pep and fun. Their salesman-like abilities stood them in good stead this year when they won the annual sale by selling the greatest number of annuals within their class. For this, they were rewarded with ice cream and a picture show.

Looking through the eyes of Coach Smith, many promising athletes and future stars are to be seen standing in the ranks of sophomores.

The Freshmen Class of 1937 enrolled sixty-seven members. With much enthusiasm, they responded to Freshmen initiation which culminated in the usual treat of goodies.

The class sponsored a basketball game with the Tigard grade school, outcome favorable to the Freshmen. The class boasts of good athletes and a number of pupils in the higher brackets of grade work. The class is eagerly looking forward to the year when they will be the standard bearer of Tigard Union High School.

FRESHMEN

Oh, the green things, the Freshmen growing,
The loud noise of the Freshmen growing;
We have to live, whether we smile or grieve
Just to watch the happy life
Of a Freshman growing.

Oh, the fluttering and the puttering
Of those Freshmen growing;
How they talk to each other
When none of us are knowing;
In the still classrooms a noise booms
Which tells us that Freshmen are growing.

We love, we love them so—
The green things growing,
For by many a tender touch
They comforted us much
Oh, the Freshmen are growing.

SOPHOMORES

Here comes Sophomores, sophomores everywhere;
Found by the dusty roadside,
Found by the sunny hillside,
Found by the noisy brook,
Found in every shady nook;
Sophomores coming, coming everywhere.

Here comes Sophomores, smiling from everywhere;
Found all around the open doors,
Found sitting on the office floor,
Found in the "gym" where children play,
Found some place everyday;
Sophomores smiling, smiling, everywhere.

Here comes Sophomores, studying everywhere;
Found studying English and Math,
Found incurring the teacher's wrath,
Found playing games on the field,
Found getting results, activities yield;
Sophomores studying, studying, everywhere.

JUNIORS

Fifty little Juniors, grown tired of play,
Came to school one autumn day;
Watching the mighty Seniors come and go;
Talking as Seniors will, you know,
Of dances, annuals, pins, and rings,
Sometimes hinting at graver things.

At last they spied within their reach
Knowledge that elders teach.
Helter-skelter, with merry din
Into the school they scrambled in;
Boys, with their tangled, unruly hair,
Girls, sweet faces flushed and fair.

With anxious faces one and all,
Each Junior responded to the call;
Through the curriculum, with driving storm
Found Juniors registered every term;
The teachers lamented, with a groan:
"Why the Juniors are Seniors" they moan.

Little "Tinny" sez:—

"Organizations give you strength,
You will grow in wisdom, weight and length."

The Student Council has the legislative powers of the high school and is made up of the student body officers and two representatives from each class.

Under the guidance of Mr. Fowler and Mr. Linn, the initiative and sincerity of the group has put into effect valuable and satisfactory laws. The Council after a successful year leaves the school financially better than they found it and they also purchased new basketball suits. The Council having completed their purpose for which they were originated, extend best wishes for the Student Council of 1938.

The Girls' League has been one of the outstanding organizations of the school since 1928.

Every girl becomes a member of the League upon registration as a student in the Tigard High School.

The girls of 1937 sponsored a bazaar which was a great success both from an artistic and financial standing. They have conducted candy sales at many of our athletic contests.

The big event of the year is the Mothers and Daughters annual party, where the girls are the hostesses, and the Mothers the guests. This year's party was a most enjoyable affair, two hundred and twenty-five guests being present.

The Girls' League helps to promote social and physical well-being among the girls in that it gives them an opportunity to participate in activities, develops their ability and encourages leadership.

The pioneer, when he wished to know where he was in relation to where he was going, left the deep recesses of the forest and ascended the highest mountain. There he could conduct a "bird's eye" reconnaissance of the panorama before him, could rise for a time above the smaller details to visualize the broader elements. The Boys' League emulates the pioneer. We leave our courses of study for an hour of extra-curricular activities and a collection of pleasant associations.

We have a creed that consists of the following:

1. To live our high school life to the fullest.
2. To be popular with all students.
3. To take an active interest in all activities.
4. To be a good sport at all times.
5. To be a good student.
6. To adopt the "American Creed" as one of our Cardinal principles.

The Commercial Team of 1937 made splendid progress under the able leadership of Mrs. Elwert. The team is composed of the shorthand, typing and bookkeeping students of Tigard Hi.

Last year, due to a faulty machine, the typing team was handicapped. However, the shorthand girls came out ahead with Dorothy Martin and Louise Harrison receiving the state accuracy shorthand medals, the only two given.

This year the girls are working hard and deserve a great deal of credit for the long hours they put in on their work.

In the '37 State Typing Contest, the Tigard teams won the State Championship cup, two typewriters and three medals. The shorthand students also won the Radio Shorthand cup for the eighth consecutive year.

The teams have brought much honor to their school through the constant practice of the members under the patient direction of Mrs. Elwert.

We're preparing today, for tomorrow
 Tomorrow for one and for all
 Is filled with speakers and leaders,
 We're preparing to answer the call.
 Men have needed initiative, judgment
 Since the world did first begin;
 But never has been more needed
 The speaker, the man who will win.
 In all kinds of work and leisure,
 No matter what we do,
 Today, the speaker is needed,
 Prepare, the world needs you.
 And so with this as our motive
 We struggled along till we won;
 Each day was another victory,
 More courage as each day was done.
 With cheerful and willing instruction
 The coach aided us through,
 and gave to the world new citizens,
 Trained, prepared and willing to do.

The work of the club is carried on chiefly through its members as individuals. This year the club has accomplished a great deal and has proved to be a welcome and useful asset to our school; for without an exemplary-Christian character all other training goes for naught.

ATHLETICS

COACH SMITH

Development, in order to be well-rounded, must contain three types of training: mental, spiritual, and physical. Classrooms provide for mental training, religious organizations for spiritual, and active living for physical. School athletics form a considerable part of physical training for those so inclined. Yet, not only do athletics aid bodily, but they also sharpen the mentality of youth by promoting quick thinking, level-headedness, and the ability to grasp a situation and see it through to a finish. Above all athletics contributes to the spiritual side in developing the vital asset of good sportsmanship and that much needed sense of clean and fair play, regardless of victory or defeat.

The instructor of such an important part of the development of youth must be a man who, himself, possesses all these traits. He must serve as an inspiration and an ideal for those boys who work under his tutelage. Just such a man is Coach Smith. His devotion to the team was clearly shown during football season at the expense of his personal health. There can be little doubt as to the origin of the fighting Tigard spirit such an outstanding example as this set before the team. It is then with deepest appreciation for his splendid services that the Annual of 1937, on behalf of the athletes and the student body dedicates this page to Coach Smith and extends with it a most sincere wish for continued success.

FOOTBALL SEASON

Coach Smith found two lettermen returning, a pair of up and coming transfers, and several promising underclassmen on hand for the first scheduled practice of the 1936 football season.

This squad opened the season with a 6-0 win over Banks on the home field. Both teams relied on power in this initial contest.

A gamely fighting Tigard eleven went down to a 37-0 defeat before a powerful McMinnville team in a night game. It was the inauguration of the new turf field and a large delegation journeyed to McMinnville for the big noise parade.

In a closely played game the Tigard team was nosed out by Grant reserves 6-7 in a see-saw game with neither team opening the bag of tricks.

Tigard's second victory came at the expense of a heavier Parkrose eleven on the Parkrose field. A superior passing attack and a 65-yard run by Saarinan resulting in a 13-6 victory for the Tigers.

Estacada was the next victim of the fighting Tiger attack. The home boys held the Estacada eleven scoreless until the last play of the game. The result was a 14-6 win for Tigard. Hughes, an ex-Tigard boy, was outstanding for Estacada.

The boys journeyed to Forest Grove and then after playing rings around the Grove squad were edged out by the margin of a conversion 6-7. This was the second straight one point victory garnered by Forest Grove over Tigard.

Newberg was next and after sixty minutes of plunging and punting the battle closed in a scoreless tie.

Armistice Day saw the Tigers' bow before Hillsboro 24-7. Despite the size of the score the game was close until the last quarter when Hillsboro pulled out in front.

A 55-yard run by Gaddis early in the third quarter, which momentarily gave the Tigard eleven a margin over Hillsboro was the sensation of the game.

In what was deemed the most thrilling game of the season, Canby squeezed out a 7-6 win over the Tigers. It took a four down stand on the Canby one foot line to gain this win.

Thanksgiving Day saw six seniors don the green and white for the last time to do battle with Beaverton in the annual "Civil War." The battle ended in a scoreless tie to bring to an end a highly commendable season.

The Tigers won three and tied two out of ten games. The power of the team was clearly shown, in that three of the losses were by the margin of a conversion after touchdowns.

The second team enjoyed a most successful season with four wins in five games. They amassed a total of 59 points to 26 for their opponents. This is a mark for future B squads to shoot at. From this team will come a future Tigard varsity.

At the annual football banquet Max Miner and Gordon Moore were elected honorary Co-Captains of the 1936 football team.

ATHLETIC POEM

I like the Tigard football teams;
Likewise their weekly games.
When players play for all they're worth,
And competition flames.
I like those crazy little yells,
Where all the gang do their bit;
And beg the charging team
To make a winning hit.
The college teams may have the skill,
But dull at times they seem,
Compared to those Tigard boys
Who work to make the team.
Year after year in autumn time,
Coach Smith has said to me:
"That Tigard is playing another team;
That game you ought to see."
I know the players, one and all;
I meet them face to face;
The fathers root for the team,
His son is in high place.
The rooters are in a glorious mood,
The quarter is the third;
The fullback is a favorite son,
And boy, is he a bird!
And that is football, played on grounds
Professionals would scorn;
Yet it is where your leading
Football players are born.
That's where the leading citizens
Of both towns, scream and shout,
And urge their boys to victory
Until the final out.
Oh! you may have your big league stuff;
But Coach and I agree
That Tigard playing Washington County teams
Is what we want to see.

BASKETBALL SEASON

The outset of basketball season found the "fighting" Tigers facing a long schedule in the newly organized Washington-Columbia County League. Prospects were very bright at that, for five lettermen returned for the season.

The Emerald Tigers were whipped into shape and started the practice season with a 24-21 win over Corbett.

Next came a 22-11 victory over Granada Theater.

A loss at the hands of Corbett followed, 23-19. Floyd Nunnenkamp was out of this game with a leg injury.

Then, on the home floor the squad tipped over the Post Office Pharmacy team of Portland 34-33.

With this practice start, the Tigers entered the league schedule where they:
 Dumped Scappoose 32-30 on the home floor.

Tripped over Rainier 33-19, again at home.

Journeyed to Vernonia to eke out a victory 20-14 over the Loggers.

Returned home to outclass Clatskanie 25-12.

Traveled to Beaverton to win a close one by the score of 20-17.

Met Forest Grove and emerged victorious 26-13. Moore was out of this game with the flu.

Went to Sherwood to win a rough one 23-16.

Dropped a heartbreaker to St. Mary's 15-13, there.

Came back to trounce Hillsboro 32-14.

Forced to take a tough one on the chin in the second half opener 28-26 at the hands of Rainier. Scappoose withdrew from the league shortly before the start of the second half schedule.

Chalked up a 25-16 victory over the Vernonia Loggers.

Took to the road to gain a 24-16 win at Clatskanie over the Indians.

Were forced to swallow the bitterest pill on several seasons by Beaverton 24-15.

Invaded Forest Grove and emerged victorious 40-18.

Trampled on the Sherwood Bulldogs 35-12 in a lopsided affair.

Came from behind with a last half drive to take Hillsboro 30-16.

Wound up the season with a 25-21 victory over St. Mary's and thereby garnering a co-championship in Washington County and gained a place in the district tournament.

Following the regular season, the Tigers went into tournament play. In the District Six meet the team outshot, outpassed, and outplayed the tall Woodburn five, 41-22. Woodburn was classed as a probable contender. The next night luck was reversed when the boys had one of those off-nights and could not connect with the basket. The result was a 32-11 win for McMinnville.

The team invaded Albany College for the first annual Albany College Invitational Tournament and walked off with the championship and lion's share of all the all-star positions.

During the tournament the team:

Won from Nestucca, 33-26.

Took Oregon City Juniors to the tune of 37-17.

Trounced Newport 26-7.

Gained a close victory, 14-12 over Nehalem in the finals.

Thus ended the regular season, and it was a highly fitting ending for the team to close its season with a tournament championship. The fruits of the season were most gratifying what with two championships and a total of twenty-five victories against five defeats. In addition, two men were on the county all stars and a third tied for a position. From the squad only two men are graduating so the team should go places next year.

A POOR SPORT

1. Alibis his defeats.
2. Takes unfair advantage of his competitors.
3. Shoots game on the "set."
4. Bombs fish.
5. Does not play the game according to the rules.
6. Bullies opponents and officials.
7. Violates eligibility agreements.
8. Is selfish—"Wants all the best of it."
9. Does not do his best.
10. Disregards the rights of others.

BASEBALL SEASON

Seven returning lettermen, a pair of boys with independent league experience behind them and a group of ambitious youngsters greeted Coach Smith at the outset of the 1936 baseball season. A little practice and this aggregation set out to make a name for itself. The result—a baseball championship, the third year after the national sport's advent as a major sport at Tigard. Proof of the athletic ability of the mighty Tigers? What do you think?

In the opening game the boys journeyed to Gaston and promptly spanked them from the upper Tualatin country to the tune of 8-1. Superior team work on the part of the Tigers!

A trip to Portland to meet Jefferson High. Although the local boys outhit Jefferson 9-5 they lacked the needed punch and consequently dropped a non-conference game 5-4. Mighty fine pitching by Podbielan—nine strike outs and no free tickets to first base!

Another game on the road. This time with Banks, and another victory for the Tigers by the score of 12-6. Another display of Tigard battling strength!

In the opening game on the home field the team proceeded to even counts with Jefferson. Behind magnificent one-hit pitching by Podbielan, the boys trounced Jefferson 5-1.

In a return game with Gaston the Tigard nine positively went wild. There was no holding them down. The score was 17-2 for the Tigers. The second team played the last three innings and garnered six tallies for its share.

To the road again. To Hillsboro this time and a ten inning victory to the tune of 8-5. Both slugging and pitching were prominent with the Tigers garnering twelve hits and Podbielan striking out fifteen men.

May Day at Tigard saw Forest Grove, ancient rivals, bow before Tigard in an 8-0 whitewashing. The highly tutored boys from Forest Grove could only gather four hits.

Next comes the big headache, a 10-9 defeat at the hands of Banks—a nine clear at the bottom of the heap. A tough one to take.

After losing to Banks it was woe to the next opponent of the enraged Tigers. As a result Forest Grove received a 9-1 shellacking. Forest Grove only collected two hits.

A pair of base hits were the extent of the Hillsboro attack in the final game of the season. Consequently a 9-2 victory to close a championship season.

The batting and pitching superiority of the 1936 baseball team is self-evident. The team field would have made any pro-league scout sit up and take notice. Eight wins against two defeats for the season and seven victories in eight county games for an average of .875 surely attests to a championship team. At the end of the season Joe Fowler was elected by his teammates as honorary captain of Tigard's first championship baseball team.

OUR TEAM

I heard the friendly umpire roar, "Strike one!"
I gazed out of the window, upon the favorite son,
Who from the pitcher's box did hurl anew,
The deadly missile, and the umpire cried, "Strike two!"
The missile came again, and with a crack,
The man behind the bat gave it an awful whack,
And Bob Steele, grabbed the ball, then with a shout,
The friendly umpire shouted loud, again, "You're out!"
The fans did hail with glee, the umpire's call.
Again the man behind the bat did hit the ball.
Another hit the ball and then a third,
Then from behind the catcher's back a cry was heard.
Selliken caught the man which ran from third,
"You're out!" the joyous umpire's mellow cry was heard.
A cry from the melodious crowd did burst,
When Gordon Moore did tab another man on first.
The last one out brought up the outs three,
The teams changed places with alert rapidity.
The whole brigade of fans began to bawl
When our great second, Donald Steele, did hit the ball.
Then Nyberg gave the ball a friendly crack
And with an easy lope, he started down the track,
But Tigard fans were chilled unto the core,
When unto Hedricks, the umpire did cry, "Ball four!"
Then Tetrick nobly stepped up to the plate,
He hit the ball, and swung to first, with easy gait.
The shouts of students broke the silent calm,
When Sagers hit the onward hurling bomb.
The men out in the field did grit their teeth,
They certainly were filled with unutterable grief,
They knew that their team was the losing side,
As Hedrick, Tetrick, Sagers into home did slide.
Of course that is the way each game does go,
The Tigers always to the topmost place do go,
And then, amidst their schoolmates' ruddy cheer,
They stick together, play and perservere.

Front Row: Lewallen, Carson, Eaton, Harris, Allison, Price, Wood.
Back Row: Dingley, Hite, Rue, Peterson, Mr. Wunderlick, Gaddis, Meyer, Marks, Owrey.

TRACK

The 1936 track team was under the supervision of Mr. Wunderlick. A number of ambitious aspirants answered the call for track material, and from the hopeful group developed several consistent performers. It was Mr. Wunderlick's policy to stress running rather than field events to form a basis for a future track squad.

The team furnished one athlete for the state meet, namely Del Gaddis who captured third place state honors in the broad jump. The squad also developed seven track lettermen. The team made a very creditable showing in view of the competition which had to be faced.

The team participated in three meets. County meet at Beaverton, Pacific University Invitational District meet, and the Washington Columbia County meet. After the season, Donald Hite, sprinter, was elected honorary track captain by his team mates.

Only two lettermen are returning this year, but after the development of teams from scratch in the past, the team should make a name for itself this year.

GOLF

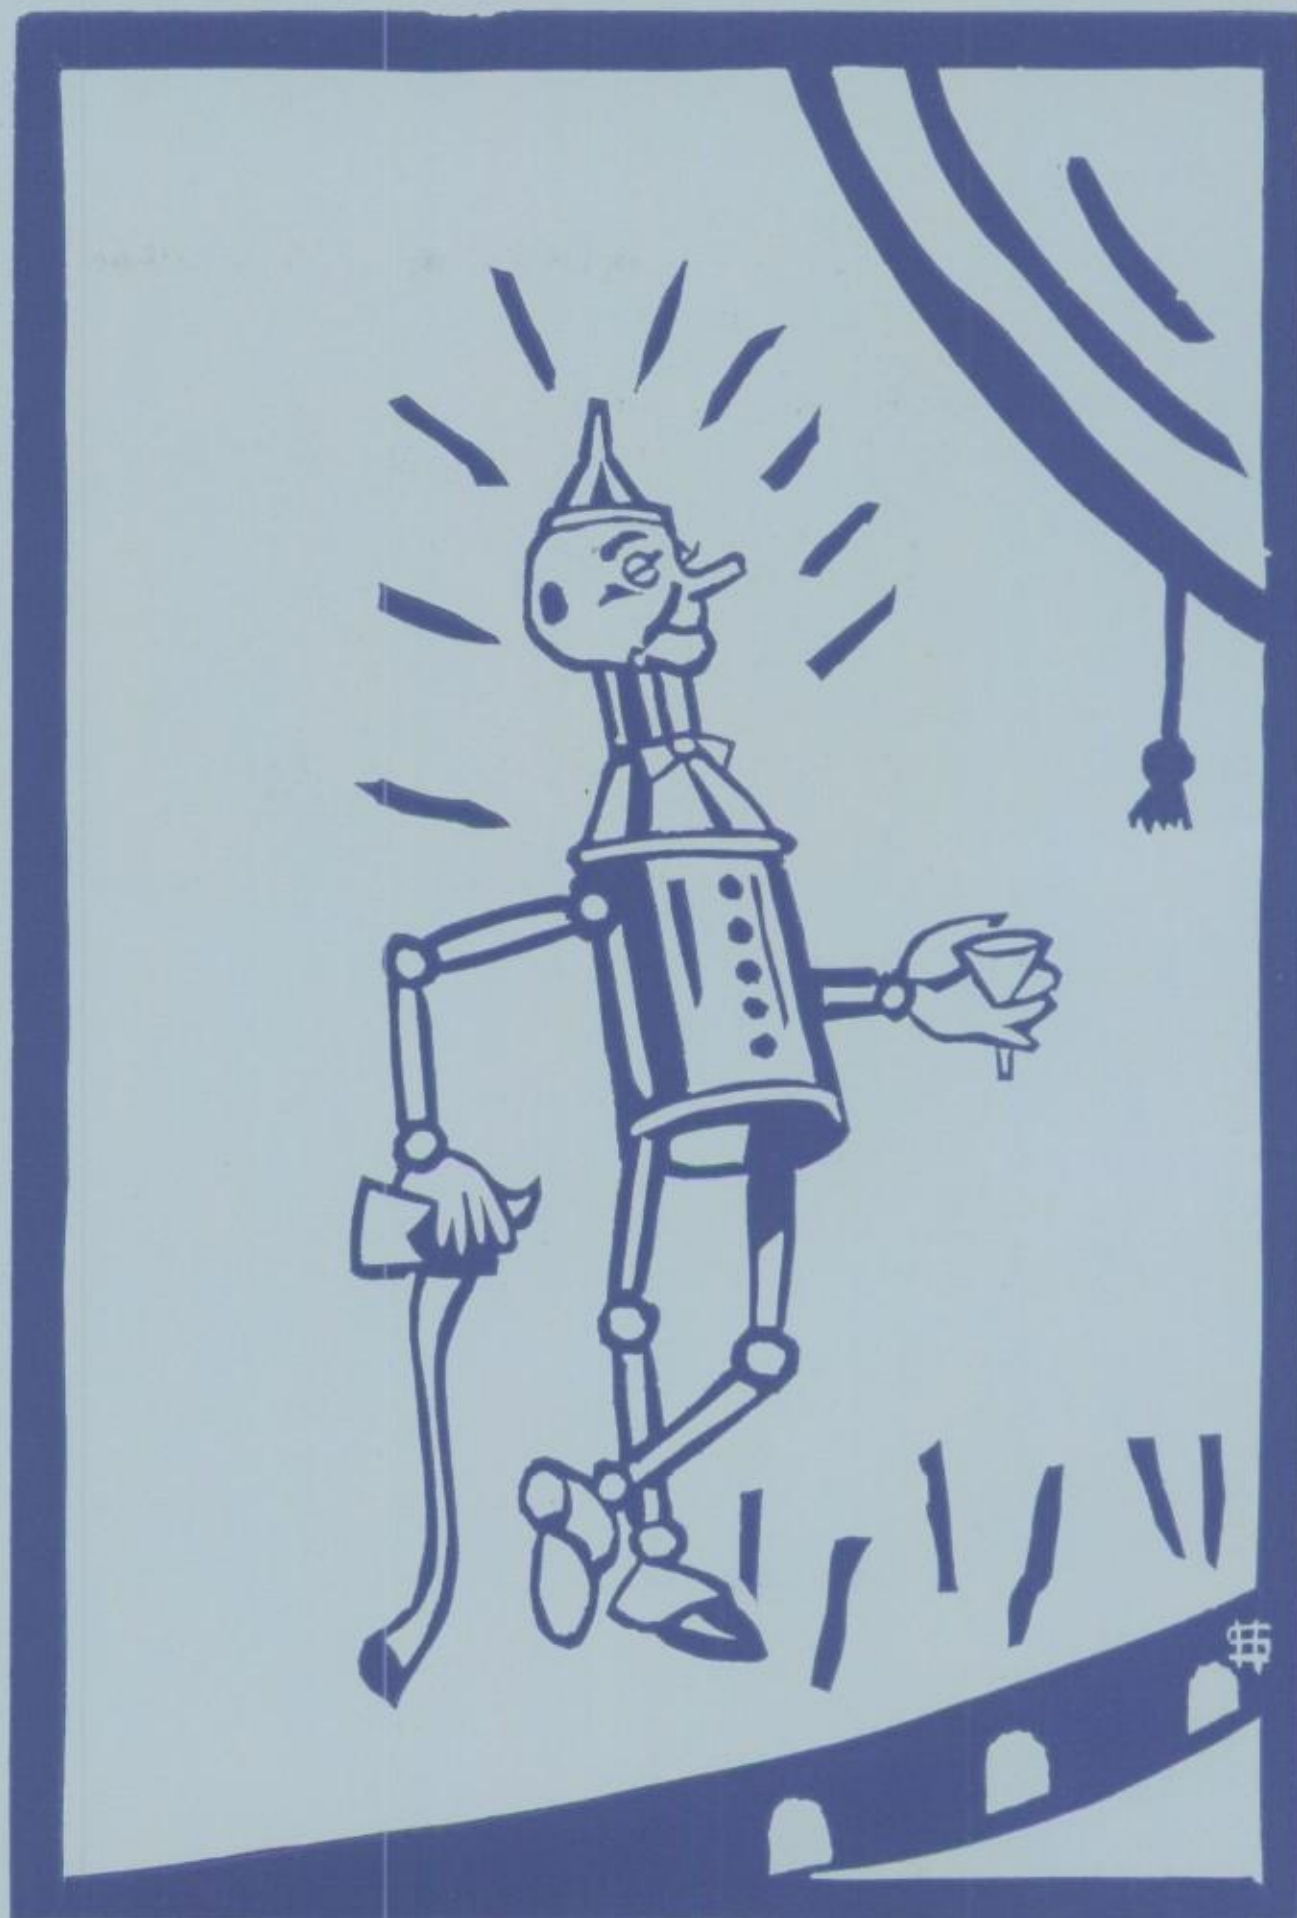

With the official establishment of golf as a minor sport by the student body this year, and provision being made for the awarding of a golf letter, the 1937 team should really get in and go places.

Mr. Linn, golf coach, was greeted by several returning members of the excellent '35 team for the 1936 season. The team proceeded to make a name for itself and did so, considering that golf is in its infancy at Tigard.

The team won two matches from Beaverton; won one and lost one against Corvallis; broke even in a pair with West Linn; took two from Parkrose; and dropped one to Lincoln, for a total of six victories against three defeats.

The members of the 1936 team were: Bob Grover, Ray Du Rie, Ross Hood, Kenneth Dobson, and Cecil Branch. Bob Grover was elected team captain.

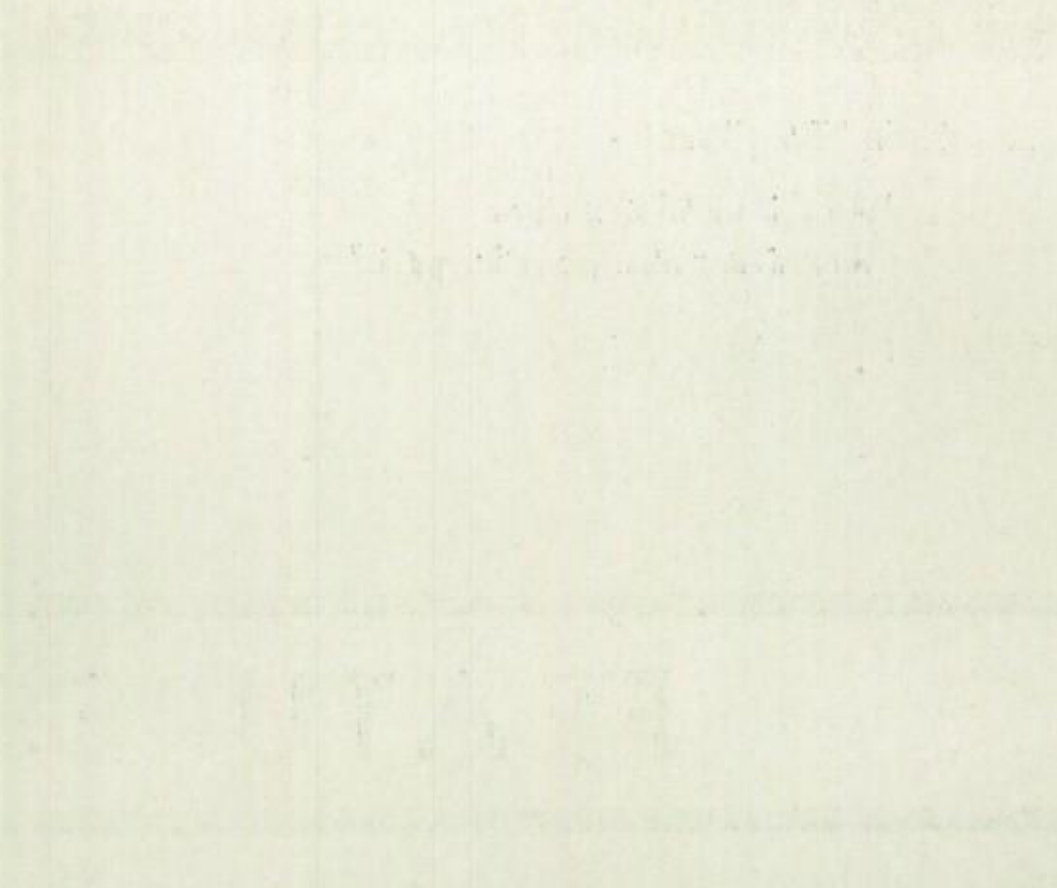

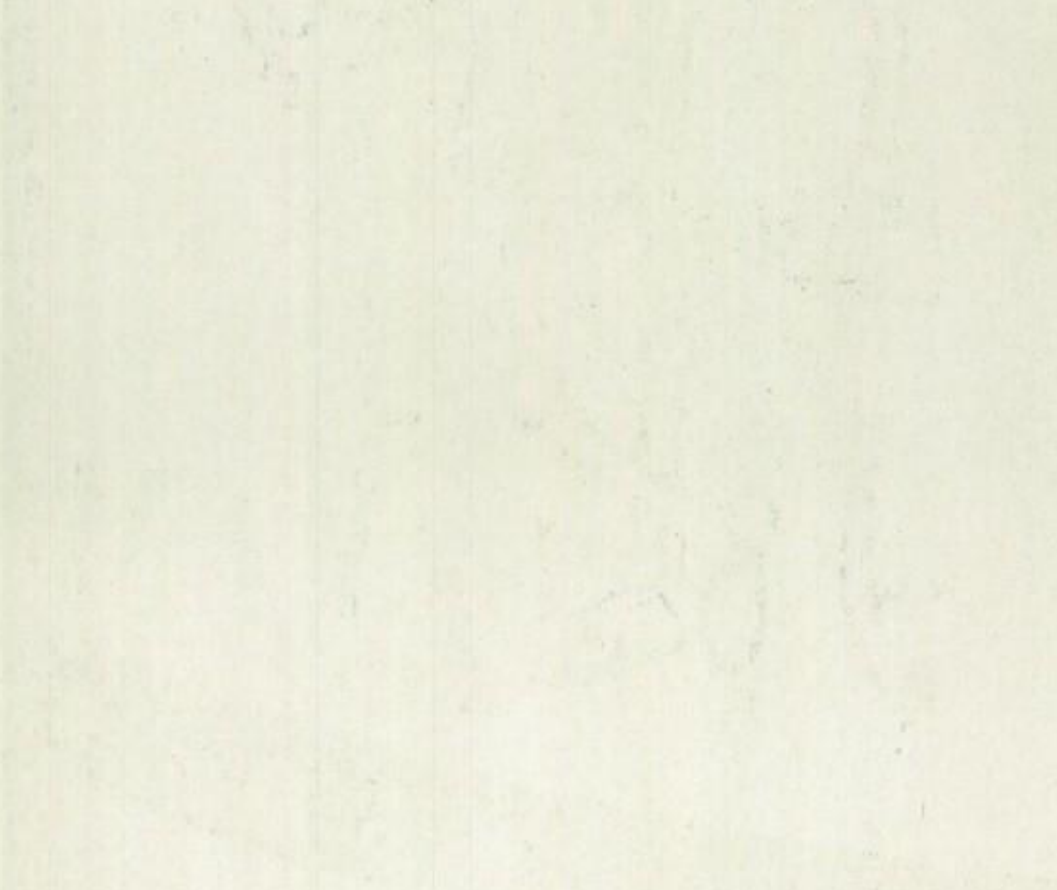

The first signs of spring weather brought a deluge of requests for golf practice. So, in view of the spirit and the prospective ability of the golf enthusiasts, the '37 season promises to be a most successful one.

The Advanced Public Speaking Club play, "Mail Order Brides," under the direction of Myrtle Mullen, was the first play to be presented in the new gymnasium.

The plot centered around the efforts of Nick Henshaw, a rancher, to block the literary efforts of his son, Bob, and his daughter, Nance. The mail order brides were part of this scheme. The efforts of Jane Hamilton, daughter of the owner of the mail order firm of Hamilton and Blakes finally brought matters to a head, to bring a rollicking funny production to a close.

The cast and audience enjoyed the clever situations and decided it might be better to obtain their brides in the usual manner.

The comedy, "Digging Up the Dirt," was presented in the high school auditorium March 12, 1937. This play was sponsored by the Dramatics Class and was under the direction of Miss Nash.

The plot evolved around the antics of two young men, Kenneth and Bill, who were visiting on a ranch in Arizona. When they lost their clothes because of a chance meeting with a skunk, they were forced to clothe themselves in Indian blankets. This was bad enough, but imagine their discomfort when Kenneth's fiancée arrived on the scene accompanied by her aunt and several girl friends.

Some valuable jewels are stolen from the owner of the ranch, a professor of archaeology. Everyone is suspected of the theft and many exciting events occur before the play finally comes to a happy close.

"Once in a Lifetime" was a romantic comedy presented May 7 by the Senior Class of '37 under the direction of Myrtle Mullen. It is the story of an adopted gypsy boy who tries to overcome his gypsy blood. After being given love and care by Mr. and Mrs. Ross, Konrad fails to keep down his wanderlust and failing to discover Laurie's love for him, he runs away to join a gypsy tribe. After many experiences, he discovers the true character of the gypsies and the undying love of his adopted parents.

Then together, Laurie and Konrad plan a future. A future which may lead to new places and new adventures and new people.

"Tune In" sponsored by the Glee Club April 2, 1937, was a musical comedy, and was under the capable direction of Miss Nash.

The story takes place in a radio station, WTNT, and revolves about the efforts of Joe Brown who is trying to get Mr. Kroggins to sign a contract. After he agrees to broadcast his program on the air, Joe learns that unless the program is a success, he will lose his radio station. A mystery soprano is to sing on the program and for a while the situation seems to be well in hand.

But alas! at the crucial moment it is discovered the mystery soprano is a women possessing more ambition than talent, thus leaving Joe "in a spot." However, he exerts a little gray matter and cleverly substitutes a singer who possesses a beautiful voice. After these, and many other obstacles have been overcome, it is revealed that Joe has fallen heir to the patent for the Kipperring process. Thus, Joe gets the program and the girl as well.

After the coronation of gracious Queen Virginia I, the program began. The four grade schools, Tigard, Durham, Metzger, and Garden Home participated in the program and helped to make this May Day a huge success.

Talks given by the interpreters were very interesting and followed the Theme of Progress.

In the afternoon Tigard defeated Forest Grove 8-0 in an exciting baseball game. The day was brought to a very successful close by the presentation, in the evening, of the second senior play, "Home Again Harry."

The tenth annual carnival was held at the usual time, Thanksgiving eve, November 25. This was the first carnival to be held in the new auditorium and this was one of the factors which made this carnival such a huge success.

The theme of the carnival was Thanksgiving, and was appropriately carried out with artistic decorations consisting of pilgrims, turkeys and Indians decorating the booths. Concessions included the Nigger Baby, Wheel, Punch Board, Ring Game, Dart, Fish Pond and many others. Many prizes were given, adding "oh's" and "ah's" to the screams of delight.

The crowd that attended thoroughly enjoyed the amusing entertainment given by the dramatics class and the chorus. Selections given by the chorus included a formal number by the boys' and girls' ensemble, and several Mexican songs. Corinne Rickert gave a humorous reading entitled the "Painless Dentist," and Marjorie and Otto Balough played a piano duet. "The Pot Boiler," a one act play presented by the dramatics class, proved very amusing.

The Smoker, sponsored by the Letterman's club, was filled with all the thrills of a professional wrestling match even though it was the lettermen and students who wrestled in this match.

The dance, with music furnished by Woody Hite's Royal Guardsmen, also proved to be a successful attraction.

The carnival ended after midnight and those who attended, returned home after a most enjoyable evening.

Much credit and praise should be given to the students and teachers who gave their time to making this carnival one of the most successful carnivals held in the history of Tigard high school. The committees consisted of the following:

MR. ALSPAUGH

Mr. Alspaugh has been our custodian for an entire decade. We hope the years have been pleasant ones and that he holds no ill will against a teacher or pupil for their numerous demands or carelessness.

A DECADE OF TIME

AIM:

With this tenth edition of the TI-U, we pay tribute to a decade of service which began formally in September, 1927. Efforts of education to teach youth how to work, how to think, have not always availed against civic apathy, but universal, democratic education has endured in principle, as a major factor of the American development. We congratulate the founders of this institution, the parents and early pupils who established such splendid precepts of educational values.

CREDIT:

All praise for their generous cooperation and efforts is given to the members of the first school board, namely, Mr. W. J. Summers, Mrs. Clara Smitte, H. A. West, Fritz Elsner, J. C. Bilyeu, Harry Leedy, and to the first superintendent, W. S. Gaunt.

Many thanks are due to dozens of Tigard citizens who untiringly labored for the organization of the Tigard Union High school. Credit is also given to the members of the community who labored in behalf of the construction of the new gymnasium in the year of 1936.

APPRECIATION:

We appreciate every act or word, however slight, that has been performed in behalf of the Tigard High School. We appreciate the interest the businessmen have shown in us during the past ten years. Without their support the annual would not have been in a position to continue through the years.

We appreciate the cooperation of teachers who have responded swiftly and thoroughly to our demands. We appreciate the creative, eager pupils who have been enrolled in the high school during the last decade. They have responded to every task in a true sense of the word.

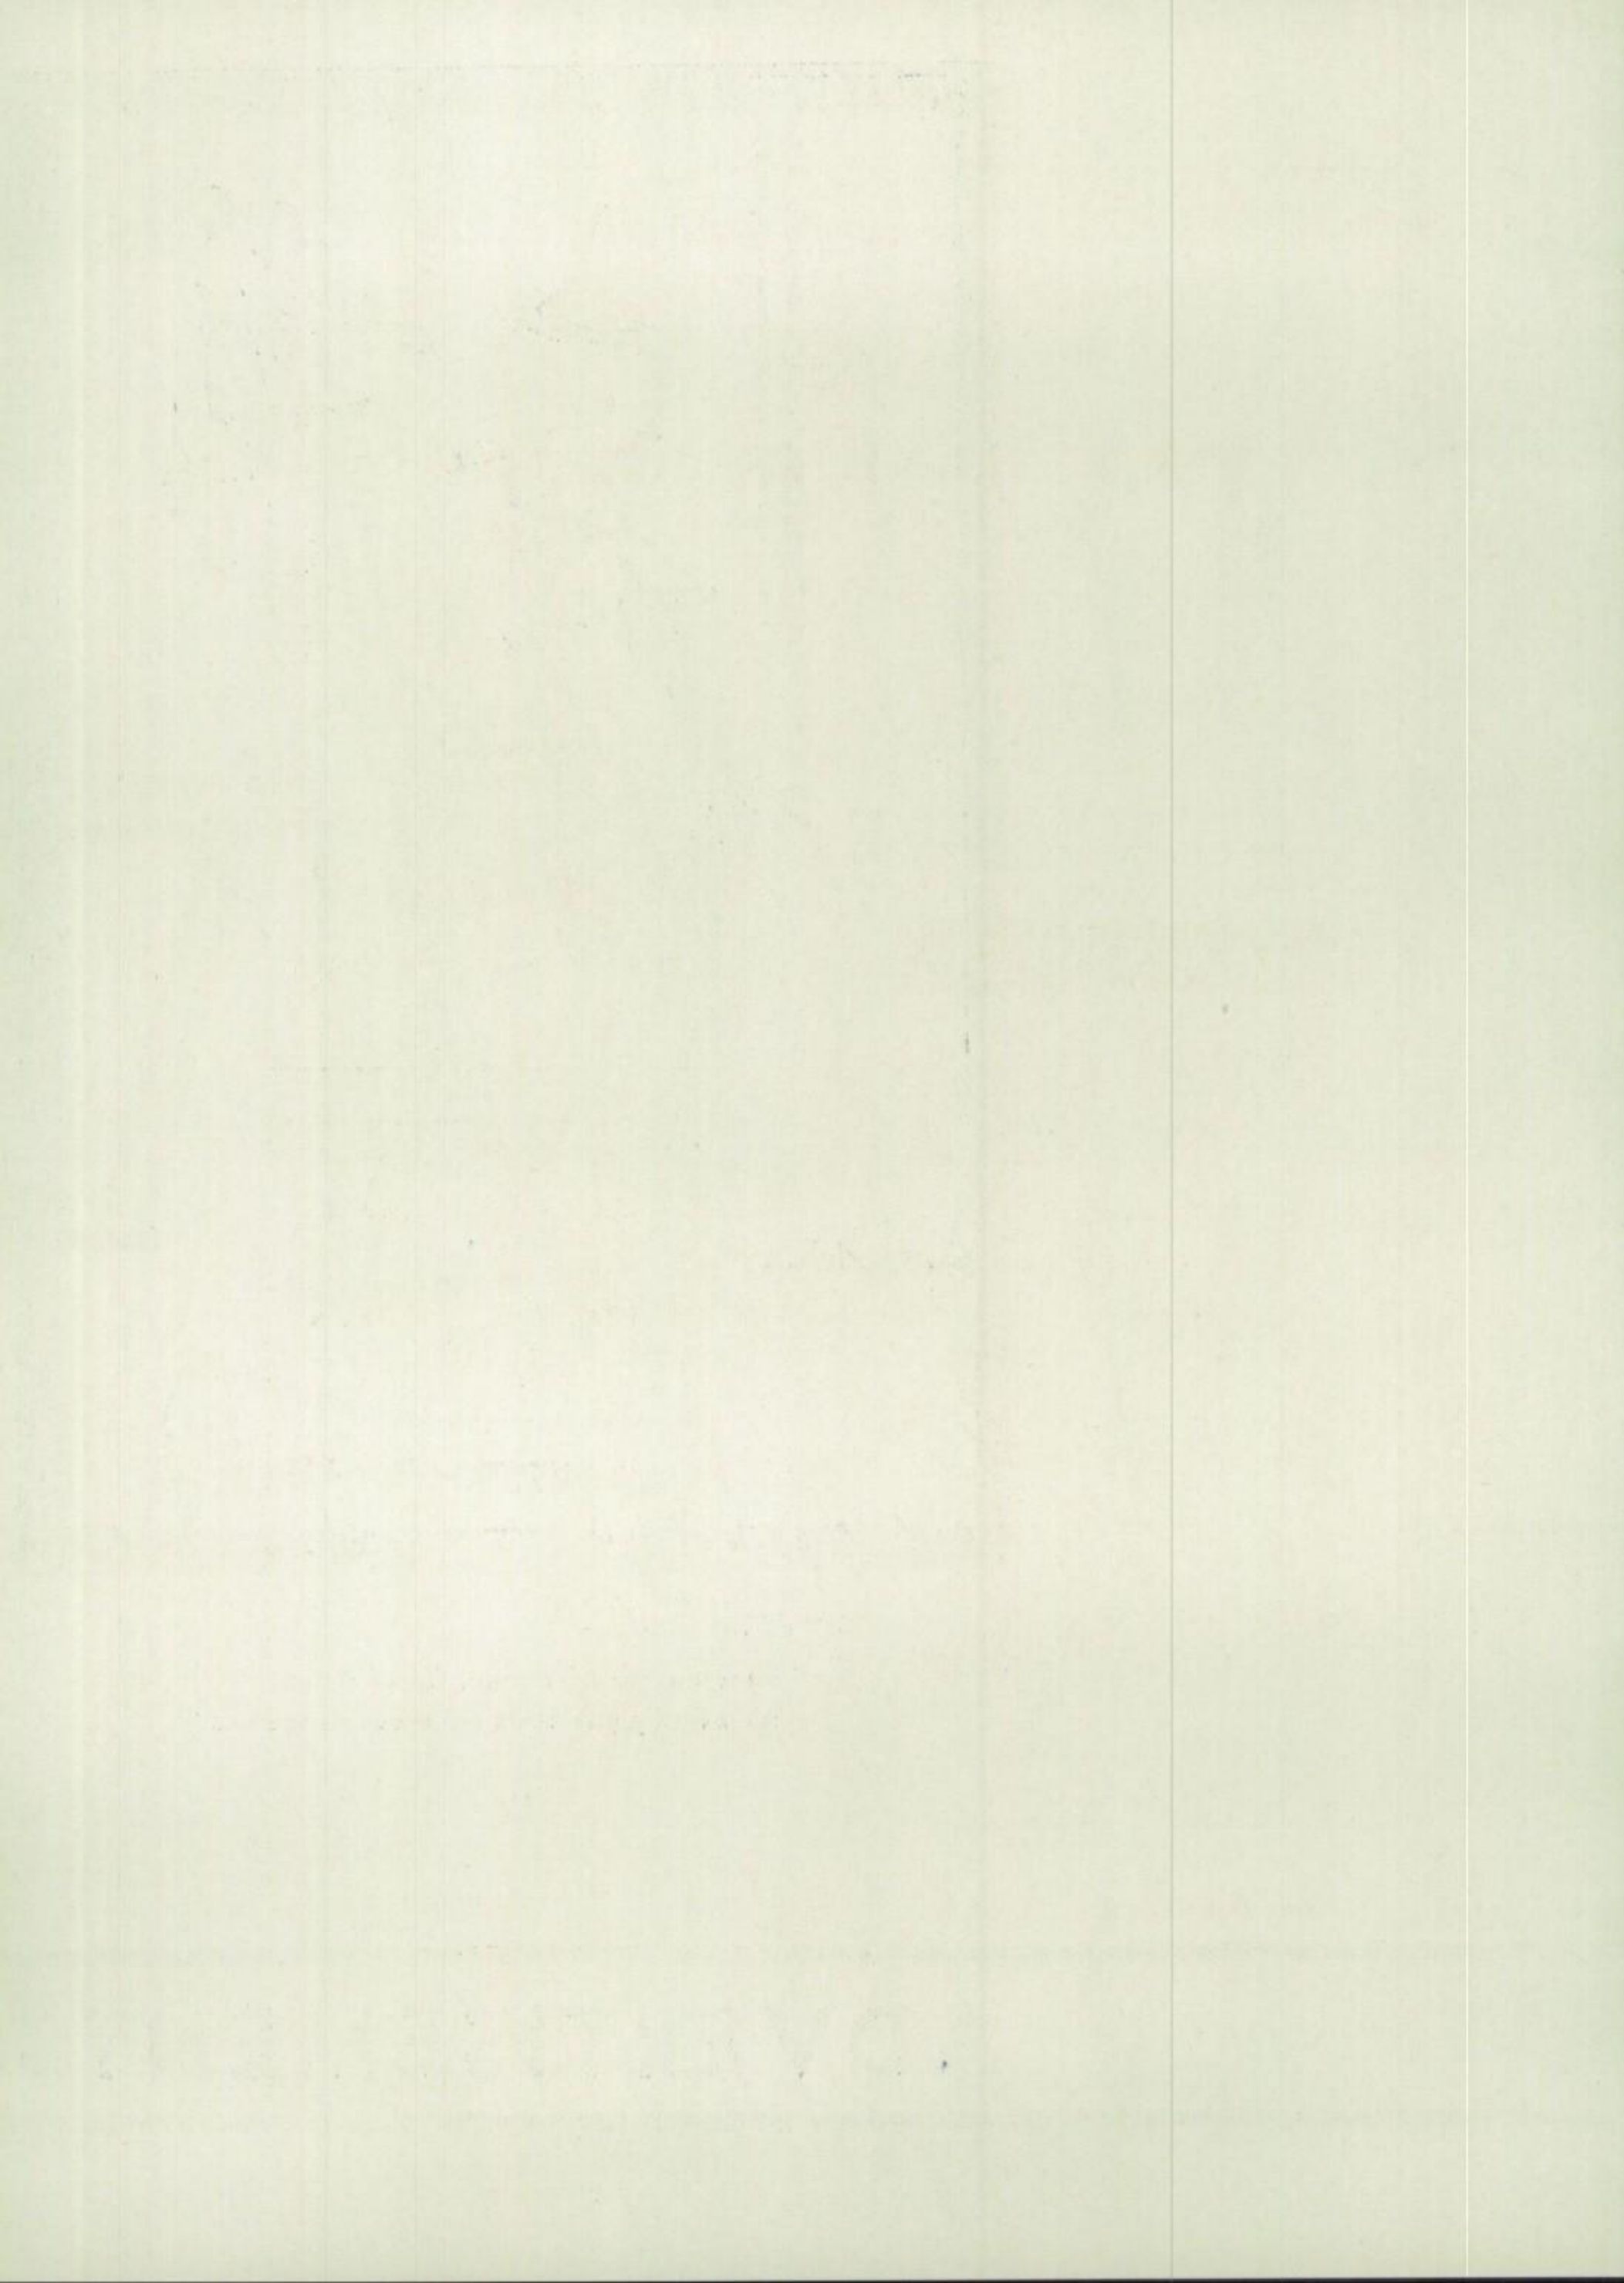

The TI-U Annual acknowledges its indebtedness to many people for its success during the past decade.

Little "Tinny" sez:—

"These are our advertisers, full of elation.
We heartily give them our recommendation."
